The Sheppards

Lora Skinner, second daughter of Harry and Lizzie Skinner, married Charles Sheppard. Charles was born in 1882 in Salem Co., NJ, but his family relocated to Wilmington, Delaware when he was young. Per the 1900 census, 17 year old Charles was an apprentice glass blower, same occupation as his father.

Not sure how Charles Sheppard of Wilmington, Delaware and Lora Skinner of Glassboro, NJ would have met, but they married in 1905 at the Skinner home in Glassboro.

Five years later, the 1910 census shows that Lora and Charles were living with his parents in Wilmington. The census shows that Charles, age 27, was a U.S. Postal Service mail clerk assigned to the railroads. This is the job he would hold for the remainder of his career. His nephew, Earl Skinner (my grandfather), had the same job for a time in his teens (circa 1920), a job he probably got with the help of his Uncle Charles. The 1910 census shows that that the Sheppard's child, Charles Frances Sheppard, was 3 years of age at the time.

Per the next census of 1920, Charles and Lora had purchased a home at Wilmington. The parents of Charles were still living with them. Ten years later, the 1930 census shows that they had relocated to a different home, just off Maryland Avenue in the Richardson Park section of Wilmington. Lora's sister – Elizabeth (Skinner) Ungerbuehler and family had relocated to Wilmington from Philadelphia and were living just a few blocks away from the Sheppards.

Lora and Charles Sheppard were filmed at the 1952 wedding of my parents, Annette and David Skinner. I never met them, as they died in a auto accident in 1957 near Elmer, NJ.

I did know their son, Francis Sheppard. Francis, a first cousin to my grandfather Earl Skinner, was good friends with Earl and wife Lillian. Francis and wife Sarah visited the Skinners at Sanibel, Fl, in the 1970's and 1980's every so often. And Earl and Lillian made a point of visiting Francis and his wife Sarah when the Skinners traveled north from Florida once a year or so.

Francis and wife Sarah also visited my parents at Woodbury now and then, until the death of Francis in the 1980's. His wife Sarah and son Paul (grandson of Lora and Charles) continued to visit us at Woodbury a few more times after that. We have all lost contact in recent years. I know that Paul resides in north/central New Jersey.

Sheppard—Skinner

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Skinner, of Glassboro, was the scene of a quiet but very pretty wedding on Wednesday evening, the contracting parties being their daughter, Miss Lora, and Chas. Sheppard, of Wilmington, Del. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Rev. Sanford M. Nichols, Ph.D., pastor of the M. E. church, in the presence of a few invited guests. The ring ceremony was used. After congratulations were extended, refreshments were served and the bride and groom left on the 10.45 train.

“After congratulations were extended, refreshments were served, and the bride and groom left on the 10:45 train.”

Event – Could be the Sheppard / Skinner marriage in 1905, but the age of the children point to a date of 1907 or so. The Skinner clan had no girls born before 1903, unless you go back a decade or more.

Location – Could have been taken behind the Shreve residence in Glassboro looking northeast up the old rail spur to the nearby Whitney Glass Works

Charles and Lora (Skinner) Sheppard with Lora's Aunt Rennie (Skinner) Shreve and Rennie's daughter Bessie Shreve, at right
The young girls are unknown but one is likely Beatrice (b. 1903), Rennie's youngest child. The other could be Thelma Shreve (b. 1905), Rennie's granddaughter. Three generations of Shreves lived on the Shreve property.

WOODBURY, N. J., MONDAY, MARCH 25, 1957

Three Dead, Several Injured in Highway Accidents in Area

A man and his wife were killed and two other persons were injured at 4:20 P. M. Sunday in an auto accident on the Franklinville-Swedesboro Rd., and the Elmer-Richwood Rd., near Hardingville, Elk Township.

A woman was killed and her husband was critically injured in a two-car accident in which two other persons were hurt on the Harding Highway, at Buck Rd., near Elmer, Sunday afternoon shortly before 5 o'clock.

The dead:

Mrs. Lora Sheppard, 75, of 100 Winston Ave., Wilmington, Del., who was pronounced dead at the scene by Dr. William R. Hofer, Gloucester County coroner, who said death was caused by a crushed chest and a fractured neck. She also suffered a broken leg.

Her husband, Charles, 74, driver of the car, a retired postal clerk, died an hour later after being admitted to the Elmer Community Hospital. Death was caused by a cerebral concussion and he also suffered multiple fractured ribs.
